“

I would like to express my sincere gratitude for the warm welcome and the remarkable moments shared throughout this event. Japan has long been a mirror in which I recognise the values that shape my work: precision, discipline, and the quiet pursuit of excellence. Over these past days, I felt this connection more deeply than ever — in every conversation, every encounter, and every gesture of respect for true craftsmanship.

I am also deeply grateful to Mr. Hajime Asaoka, whose vision and initiative brought this project to life, as well as to all those who worked with dedication behind the scenes to make it possible. Their commitment, precision, and care gave this event its true meaning.

This gathering proved to be truly exceptional, marked by an inspiring energy and a remarkable success, with more than 2,000 visitors. To every person who came, shared their passion, and took the time to engage with our work — thank you. Your presence and curiosity gave life to these days and made them unforgettable.

As a German watchmaker, I have always felt a natural connection with the Japanese devotion to detail and authenticity. To present our creations here, and to see them received with such understanding and sensitivity, has been a true honour.

Finally, I would like to salute the remarkable watchmakers participating in this event — true masters whose work embodies the highest standards of our art, and whose presence made this experience even more meaningful. These moments will remain with me, and they reinforce our deepest conviction: fine watchmaking lives through time — and through the people who truly understand it.
